

MJ EVERSON

Dear Friend,

August 2007

From time to time, I like to use this monthly letter to introduce you all to a local business that shares the same “client–first” approach I follow. Allow me to tell you a little story...

You always hear that summer is supposed to be fun and relaxing. Why, then, does it seem like you’re always running from one event to the next? Camping, weddings, BBQ’s, 4th of July, graduations, birthdays, concerts and more. It’s enough to run you ragged! Well, good client, I’ve discovered some relief.

Awhile back I needed a massage. But how to find the time? With family, work and studying for my CFP, I just didn’t see how I could squeeze in time to go out and get a massage. Thanks to Edy McGillvray, a friend and client, I found Mariko Tamayama.

Mariko, a certified massage therapist, came to the office (so I didn’t have to drive around Sonoma County) and she’ll come to you, too! For a very reasonable price, she sets up her table and linens, allows you to get comfortable on the table and she then applies her expertly trained hands to your aches and pains and relieves your stress.

In the recent years, scientific studies have shown there are many positive benefits of massage to our health and well-being. In fact, it is becoming especially clear that seniors receive a great deal of benefit from the ancient art of massage. If you haven’t tried it, why not give Mariko a call? As a senior herself, she understands your body and how best to help you. Please read the enclosed flyer and enjoy her expert skills!

Speaking of summer engagements, I hope you had the chance to come to our Summer Client Appreciation Party! Thanks to Shelley and Joan for planning a wonderful event. Tom Cordoni once again wowed us all with his accordion stylings! And most of all, thank you to all of you who came along to visit with the MJ Everson Financial family. It’s especially nice for me to be able to get to know you better over fine food and wine. I’d like to personally thank you all, whether you came to the party or not, for the continued support of my company!

Yours truly,

Matt
